

International Post Charges Easy Guide As at 3 March 2008

When sending mail overseas, use the following checklist to ensure fast, safe delivery of all articles.

✓ Is the article safe to mail?

Some items are considered dangerous, and are prohibited or restricted. See our Dangerous Goods guide for more information. Please ensure that all articles are safe to send.

✓ Is the article allowed in the selected destination?

Country specific regulations define what may be sent and how it may be sent. Please ensure that the contents of all articles are acceptable in the destination country.

✓ Is the article packed securely?

Use Australia Post's Packaging Guidelines.

✓ Is your mail addressed correctly?

Correct addressing and the inclusion of a postcode will help ensure an article reaches its destination on time. Always include a return address.

✓ Does the article contain valuables?

Different countries have different rules about valuable items. Check to make sure valuables are sent correctly. For added peace of mind, consider Extra Cover (formerly Insurance) for valuable items. Some countries will only accept valuable items if they are have Extra Cover (formerly Insurance).

✓ Does the article require a customs form?

The right customs form must be attached to all articles. Any item which does not have the required customs form will be returned to sender. Use the guide above to check which form your article requires. All forms are available at Australia Post outlets.

✓ Is the size and weight of the article acceptable?

There are size and weight limits for international articles, which may depend on the destination country, or the service used.

International Post and the GST

- Unless indicated otherwise, International Post charges are GST-free.
- A range of specially designed GST-free stamps is available for international mail.
- If you use a franking machine or postage meter to apply postage to international mail, you are required to apply postage at 10% above the card rate to offset input credits you may claim.
- If you wish to use domestic stamps on international mail, then you are required to affix postage at 10% above the rate shown in this Guide.

Aviation Security

Under international mail security requirements, Australia Post customers are required to provide identification when lodging international mail. No identification check is required when sending Express Courier International items. Consequently:

- All items weighing over 500g, except Express Courier International prepaid products, must be lodged at an Australian Post counter.
- Express Courier International prepaid products may be posted in a GOLD Post Box

Any item which is not lodged correctly, or which does not have the required customs form attached will be returned to sender, or incur delivery delays.
